REMARKS:

The attached is the draft Terms of Reference for the Intelligence Subcommittee of the Cabinet Committee on Narcotics. I see no problem with it, and it has been fully coordinated within the DDI, USIB Secretariat, and NIPE.

The two CIA positions mentioned in paragraph 4. would be held by [redacted] as the chairman and [redacted] as the deputy chairman.

Is this OK with you?

TERMS OF REFERENCE FOR THE INTELLIGENCE
SUBCOMMITTEE

The Intelligence Subcommittee is hereby established by authority of the Executive Director of the Cabinet Committee on International Narcotics Control (CCINC) and Chairman of its Working Group.

Mission

1. The Subcommittee shall provide for a coordinated national effort in the collection, dissemination and finished production of foreign strategic intelligence 1/ on narcotics and dangerous drugs. Toward this end the Subcommittee shall advise and assist the CCINC and the Working Group on intelligence matters relating to the goal of curtailing and eventually eliminating the flow of illegal narcotics and dangerous drugs into the United States from abroad.

Membership and Procedures

2. The membership of the Subcommittee will consist of representatives from the following departments and agencies:

- (a) The Bureau of Customs
- (b) The Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs
- (c) The Central Intelligence Agency
- (d) The Defense Intelligence Agency
- (e) The Department of State
- (f) The Department of Treasury
- (g) The National Security Agency

1/ Foreign intelligence includes domestic intelligence that directly relates to foreign intelligence targets. Strategic intelligence is that intelligence which is required for the formulation of national policy on narcotics and dangerous drugs, concerns more than one department or agency, and transcends the exclusive competence of a single department or agency.

3. The Subcommittee may invite representatives of other departments and agencies of the Government to sit with the Subcommittee whenever matters within the purview of such other departments or agencies are to be discussed.

4. The Central Intelligence Agency's member of the Working Group will act as the Chairman. The Central Intelligence Agency will also provide the Deputy Chairman who will in addition be responsible for the secretariat functions necessary to the Subcommittee's functions.

5. Each department or agency represented on the Subcommittee will nominate a principal and an alternate member to the Subcommittee except that the Central Intelligence Agency will nominate two principal members: the Chairman and the Deputy Chairman.

6. The Subcommittee will provide intelligence support by referring its recommendations for action to the Working Group, which may in turn refer such recommendations to the CCINC when appropriate or necessary.

7. The Subcommittee will reach its decisions by agreement. When the Chairman determines that a given position on the matter under consideration represents the consensus of the Subcommittee, it will be considered agreed
